  - (a) principles of opening/closing positions and placing, modifying, deleting, and executing Orders;
  - (b) the Company's actions in respect of the Customer's Open Positions in case the Margin Level on the Trading Account is insufficient to support Open Positions; and
  - (c) procedures of Dispute resolution and the methods of communication between the Customer and the Company.
- 1.3. These Terms of Business, the Customer Agreement, the Risk Acknowledgement and Disclosure, shall govern all the Customer's Transactions and should be read carefully by the Customer.
- 1.4. Unless otherwise defined, capitalized terms used in these Terms of Business shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Customer Agreement. In addition, the definitions set out in clause 11 ("Interpretation of Terms") shall apply.

2. GENERAL TERMS

Quotes

- 2.1. The Company will recalculate Quotes for all Instruments in real time, based on market conditions and streaming prices/liquidity received from Liquidity Providers, and will periodically send to the Customer some of these Quotes as Market Snapshots.
- 2.2. Customer shall receive quotes through his/her Customer Terminal in MyFXTM. All Quotes shall represent the best possible available Bid and Ask price on the market at the time, as this may be provided by the Company's Liquidity Provider(s). The Customer understands and accepts herein that such quotes, as these may be represented by the Company, are considered correct and valid as provided by the Company's Liquidity Provider(s).

The Customer further understands and accepts herein that such quotes may vary significantly for the following, but not limited, reasons:

  - a) due to the different Customer Account Type(s); and/or
  - b) due to market prevailing conditions; and/or
  - c) due to Over the Counter (OTC) decentralized market(s).
- 2.3. The Customer acknowledges that:
  - (a) the Company has the right not to send to the Customer those Quotes that have not changed since the previous Market Snapshot;
  - (b) the Customer may not receive via the Customer Terminal all the Quotes that have been in the Quotes Flow between Market Snapshots; and
  - (c) Spread is not fixed and will vary depending on market conditions and streaming prices/liquidity received by the Company from Liquidity Providers.

Execution of the Customer's Requests and Instructions

- 2.4. The procedure for handling the Customer's Instructions given through the Customer Terminal is:
- (a) the Customer prepares an Instruction and the Customer Terminal checks if it is valid;
  - (b) the Customer Terminal sends the Instruction to the Server;
  - (c) if the connection between the Customer Terminal and the Server has not been disrupted, the Server receives the Instruction and starts the process of verification;
  - (d) a valid Customer's Instruction is placed in the queue and sorted by arrival time (first in-first out) and the "Order is accepted" status appears in the Order window in the Customer Terminal. The Company shall not be responsible for any delays in the execution of any Orders in Abnormal Market Conditions;
  - (e) as soon as a Dealer is ready to handle a new Instruction the Dealer takes the first Instruction from the queue and processes it<sup>1</sup> and the "Order is placed" status appears in the "Order" window in the Customer Terminal;
  - (f) the Server receives from the Dealer the result of the Customer's Instruction execution process;
  - (g) the Server sends to the Customer Terminal the result of the Customer's Instruction execution process; and
  - (h) the result of the Instruction execution is received by the Customer Terminal if the connection between the Customer Terminal and the Server has not been disrupted.
- 2.5. The Customer may place either an Market Execution Instruction or Pending Order.
- 2.6. The Company at its sole discretion will specify the current market price. The execution of the order as per the market execution model will be based on the available market depth where all the prices in the market depth have the respective liquidity behind them. Market depth depends on the liquidity of each instrument and may vary based on the period and the market conditions.
- 2.7. The standby time for each Instruction which has been placed in the queue in order to be executed has a limit of 3 (three) minutes at the time of the release of these Terms of Business. If during this period of time, the Instruction has not been received by a Dealer, it is deemed to be irrelevant and automatically deleted. Once an Instruction is received by a Dealer, the Dealer processes it as soon as practicably possible. Abnormal Market Conditions may result in Customer Orders being rejected for execution.
- 2.8. In the circumstances listed below, the Company may decline an Instruction, with the result that the "Off quotes" message appears in the Customer Terminal if:
- (a) the Instruction precedes the first Quote in the Trading Platform on the Market Opening;
  - (b) the Company is not able to hedge the trade with a Liquidity Provider; or
  - (c) the Customer's Free Margin is less than the Initial Margin.
- 2.9. The Customer shall only give Instructions through the Customer Terminal. To avoid problems associated with the inability to open or close positions, we recommend using Pending Orders such as Stop Loss and Take Profit.

<sup>1</sup> Depending on the amount of time a Dealer needs to process an Instruction there is a possibility that in the Server Log-File the recorded execution time of the first Instruction in the queue will be later than the execution time of the Instruction which followed after.

Transactions

- 2.10. The Ask price is used to make a “buy” Transaction. The Bid price is used to make a “sell” Transaction:
- (a) The Ask price is used to open a Long Position. The Bid price is used to open a Short Position.
  - (b) The Bid price is used to close a Long Position (i.e. sell). The Ask price is used to close a Short Position (i.e. buy).

Rollovers

- 2.11. All the positions which remain open from 23:59:45 to 23:59:59 (Server time) will be subject to rollover. All the positions which are opened or closed from 23:59:45 to 23:59:59 (Server time) may be subject to rollover. The positions will be rolled over by debiting or crediting the Customer’s Trading Account with the amount calculated in accordance with the Contract Specifications.

The Company has the right based on symbol characteristics or not to change the above time when the rollover is being charged.

Quotes Base Synchronization

- 2.12. In case of unforeseen break or incorrect flow in the Quotes Flow caused by software or hardware failure, the Company has the right to synchronize the Quotes Base on the live Server from other sources. Such sources include:
- a) Quotes Base on the demo Server;
  - b) any other reliable sources<sup>2</sup>.

In the case of any Disputes arising in respect of the break in Quotes Flow, all decisions are made in accordance with the synchronized Quotes Base.

- 2.13. The size of the Leverage depends on the Customer’s Open Positions as described on the Company’s Trading Terms Webpage.
- 2.14. The Company has the right to change the Leverage of the Trading Account in accordance with margin requirements with immediate effect without giving prior notice.
- 2.15. The Company is entitled to apply new margin requirements amended in accordance with clause 2.13 to the new positions and to the positions which are already open.
- 2.16. The Company has the right to change the Leverage for a particular Customer at any time and at its sole discretion with prior Written Notice. Any such amendment shall enter into force upon notification of the Customer except of emergency cases.

3. OPENING A POSITION

- 3.1. In order to give an Market Execution Instruction to open a position the Customer shall specify the following:
- (a) Instrument;
  - (b) Transaction Type;
  - (c) Transaction Size; and
  - (d) Fill Policy

- 3.2. In order to open a position via the Customer Terminal without using an Expert Advisor, the Customer shall press the “Buy by Market” or “Sell by Market” button. The Customer’s Instruction to open a position may be executed at a price that differs from the Quote the Customer has received via the Customer Terminal during the last Market Snapshot in the following cases:
- (a) If the current Quote changes since the last Market Snapshot;
  - (b) If the Quote from the last Market Snapshot is for a lower Transaction Size than the Customer’s Instruction Transaction Size.

In any case the Instruction will be executed at the best price available from the Company’s Liquidity Providers.

- 3.3. When opening a position via the Customer Terminal using an Expert Advisor, the Customer is not able to specify Stop Loss and/or Take Profit Orders levels. If the Customer wishes to place these Orders, the Customer can do it by modifying the existing position in accordance with clauses 5.16 to 5.22.

Processing and Execution of Instructions to Open a Position

- 3.4. Once the Server has received the Customer’s Instruction to open a position, it automatically checks if the Free Margin is sufficient to open the position:
- (a) for Accounts where hedging is allowed, cumulative Customer positions and new Necessary Margin (“New Margin”) are calculated for the Matched Positions depending on the Hedged Margin;
for other Accounts this is dependent on the Initial Margin, which is calculated at the average weighted price (in terms of volume) of all positions except the matched ones;
  - (b) all Floating Profits/Losses for all Open Positions and the new position are calculated at the current Quotes;
  - (c) “Free Margin” is calculated as follows:  $\text{Free Margin} = (\text{Balance} + \text{Credit} - \text{New Margin}) + (\text{Floating Profit} + \text{Floating Loss})$ ;
  - (d) if the above-mentioned calculations for the new position have been done and:
    - “Free Margin” is more or equal to zero, subject to clause 2.8, the position is opened. The process of opening the position is followed by the relevant record in the Server Log-File; or
    - “Free Margin” is less than zero, then the Company has the right, but no obligation, to decline the Instruction to open the position and the “No money” message will be recorded in the Server Log-File.
- 3.5. An Instruction to open a position shall be deemed executed and the position shall be deemed open once the relevant record appears in the Server Log-File.
- 3.6. In the Trading Platform each Open Position has a Ticket.
- 3.7. An Instruction to open a position will be declined by the Company if it precedes the first Quote in the Trading Platform on the Market Opening. In this case, the “Off quotes” message appears in the Customer Terminal window.
- 3.8. When using the One-Click Trading tab in the Market Watch window, an Instruction to open a position will be automatically placed (i.e. without any further confirmation) upon clicking on the “Buy” or “Sell” buttons within the Trading tab of the Market Watch window. Once an Instruction has been placed it may not be cancelled and will be recorded within the Server

Log-File. A One-Click Trade may be rejected in such circumstances as a lack of Free Margin or refusal by the Dealer to open a position and will be recorded within the Server Log-File.

- 3.9. An Order placed by a Customer may be not executed due to, amongst other things, lack of liquidity from Liquidity Providers or Fast Market conditions. In such circumstances the Customer may indicate his preferred Fill Policy as follows:
- (a) If the Customer has chosen a "Fill or Kill" policy, the Order will only be filled with the specified volume and price equal to or better than that indicated within the Order, otherwise the Order will be terminated;
  - (b) If the Customer has chosen a "Fill or Cancel" policy, the Order will be executed with the volume maximally available in the market within that indicated in the Order at the price equal to or better than the indicated one. The Order may therefore be partially filled and any remaining quantities will be cancelled.

- a) If the current Quote changes since the last Market Snapshot;
  - b) If the Quote from the last Market Snapshot is for a lower Transaction Size than the Customer's Instruction Transaction Size.

In all instances, the Instruction will be executed at the best price available from the Company's Liquidity Providers.

Processing and Execution of Instructions to Close a Position

- 4.3. An Instruction to close a position is deemed executed and the position is deemed closed once the relevant record appears in the Server Log-File.
- 4.4. For Accounts where hedging is applicable, if amongst the Customer's Open Positions, the Customer has a position which he/she wishes to close against a matching Open Position of the same Instrument, the Customer can do so by using the "Close by" item in the "Type" drop down list. Upon matching/closing the Customer's chosen positions, the Customer will have either a zero or net Long/Short Position based upon the net overall exposure. The Customer should note that the net overall position will be allocated a new Ticket.
- 4.5. An Instruction to close a position will be declined by the Company if the Instruction precedes the first Quote on the Market Opening. In this case, the "Off quotes" message appears in the Customer Terminal window.
- 4.6. An Instruction to close a position may be declined by the Company if it is made when the Stop Loss or the Take Profit for this position is in the queue in order to be executed. In this case the "Off quotes" message appears in the Customer Terminal window.

Once an Instruction has been placed it may not be cancelled and will be recorded within the Server Log-File. A One-Click Trade may be rejected in such circumstances as a lack of Free Margin or refusal by the Dealer to open a position and will be recorded within the Server Log-File.

For other accounts this is dependent on the Initial Margin, which is calculated at the average weighted price (in terms of volume) of all positions except the matched ones;

The Customer acknowledges, agrees and consents herein that the execution price may differ from the order level.
- 5.30. In the cases where a pending order level and/or the respective order's Stop Loss and/or Take Profit shall fall within a price gap at market opening and/or during the quote(s) flow, the Company, in its sole and absolute discretion, shall open and close a position immediately within the same tick, at the first available price.

Server Log-File

- 9.6. The Server Log-File is the most reliable source of information in a case of any Dispute. The Server Log-File has the absolute priority over other arguments including the Customer Terminal Log-File as the Customer Terminal Log-File does not register every stage of the execution of the Customer's Instructions and Requests.
- 9.7. If the Server Log-File has not recorded the relevant information to which the Customer refers, the argument based on this reference may not be considered.

Indemnification

- 9.8. The Company may resolve all Disputes by:

- 9.9. The Company has the right to choose the method of Dispute resolution at its sole discretion.
- 9.10. Disputes not mentioned in these Terms of Business are resolved in accordance with the common market practice and at the sole discretion of the Company.

Refusal of complaint

- 9.16. If the Customer has been notified in advance by Trading Platform internal mail (or by some other way) of routine construction on the Server, complaints made in respect of any unexecuted Instructions which are given during such construction periods are not accepted. The fact that the Customer has not received a notice shall not constitute a reason to lodge a complaint.
- 9.17. Provided that clause 5.23 has not been breached, complaints in respect of time of Order execution, notwithstanding the amount of time a Dealer needed to execute the Order as well as the time when the Server Log-File Recorded Order execution, are not accepted.
- 9.18. No Customer complaints will be accepted in respect of the financial results of the deals made using temporary excess Free Margin on the Trading Account gained as a result of a profitable position (cancelled by the Company afterwards) opened at an Error Quote (Spike) or at a Quote received as a result of a Manifest Error.

- Once the Dispute has been resolved the Company has the right to trigger the Stop Loss or the Take Profit in the chronological order in which they would have been triggered if the Stop Out had not been executed.
