1. General Provisions

- 1.1. These Regulations on Non-Trading Operations (the "Regulations") have been developed within a framework of international cooperative measures aimed at combating financial misconduct, exposing and preventing violations of the law, and establishing the procedure for performing non-trading operations on a Client Account with FXTM (the "Company" or "FXTM").
- 1.2. "Non-trading operation" shall mean any operation performed by the Client that involves the depositing of funds to their Client Account, the withdrawal of funds from their Client Account, or the internal transfer of funds between Client Accounts in MyFXTM. The terms and definitions applicable to these Regulations are specified in Appendix A of the Client Agreement, which can be found in the "Account Opening Agreements" subsection, located in the "Policies and Regulation" section on the Company Website. In cases where certain provisions of these Regulations concerning non-trading operations contradict those in the Client Agreement or the Terms of Business, the provisions of these Regulations shall prevail. This provision does not render other terms of the aforementioned documents invalid.
- 1.3. Requests for non-trading operations can only be sent by the Client to the Company through MyFXTM. All other means of communication specified in Clause 3 of these Regulations are intended for further supporting correspondence between the Company and the Client and notifications to the Client by the Company.
- 1.4. When registering for MyFXTM on the Company Website, the Client undertakes to provide accurate and authentic information to identify themselves in accordance with the requirements of the Client Registration Form on the Company Website and these Regulations. The Client shall inform the Company of any changes to their identification data in a timely manner.
- 1.5. The Company reserves the right to request the following documents at any time in order to verify the Client's identity as an individual person:
 - a. Proof of legal existence issued by the local government. A high-resolution scanned copy or photo of the Client's passport pages or any other national ID that clearly indicates the Client's full name, date and place of birth, passport/ID number, dates of issue and expiry, issuing country, and the Client's signature;
 - b. Proof of address. A high-resolution copy or photo of a: utility bill (water, electricity, phone bill) issued within the last 6 months; bank statement (for a current account, deposit account or credit card account); bank reference letter confirming the Client's address.
- 1.6. The Client guarantees the legitimate origin, lawful possession and right to use the funds transferred by the Client to the Client Accounts and such representation is deemed made each time such a transfer is being made.
- 1.7. In accordance with the USA's "Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act" (FATCA), the Company or its liquidity provider(s) is/are registered with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) of the USA (<https://www.irs.gov/>), thereby confirming its consent to collect and report information on US taxpayers to the Internal Revenue Service of the USA. The Company collects information, allowing it to determine whether new or existing Clients are subject to FATCA requirements. In this regard, the Company may request that the Client complete one of the questionnaires on self-certification in a form from the Company, the W-8 form, and may request additional documents and information. The Company cannot provide services to those individuals whose foreign accounts are subject to FATCA tax requirements.
- 1.8. The Company shall have the right to amend at its sole discretion the terms of these Regulations at any time giving the Client 3 (three) business days' prior notification in one or several of the ways described in Clause 3.1 of these Regulations. Such amendments will come into effect on the date specified in the notification.

- 1.9. These Regulations are transparent and are an integral part of the Agreement concluded between the Company and the Client.
- 1.10. The content of these Regulations shall be disclosed without limitation upon the request of any interested party.
- 1.11. The Client acknowledges and agrees that (without prejudice to any of the Company's other rights under the Operative Agreements to close out the Client's Open Positions and exercise other default remedies against the Client) where a sum is due and payable to the Company in accordance with the Operative Agreements and sufficient cleared funds have not yet been credited to the Client's Trading Account, the Company shall be entitled to treat the Client as having failed to make a payment to the Company and to exercise its rights under the Operative Agreements. The payment amount will be converted into the Currency of the Trading Account at the rate determined by the bank of the Company.

2. Suspicious non-trading operations

- 2.1. The Company may declare a non-trading operation suspicious in cases including, but not limited to:
 - a. exposure of abuse of funds transfers without using the Company's services (without completing trading operations on the trading account);
 - b. revelation of the unusual nature of operations that do not have obvious economic substance or obvious legal purpose;
 - c. revelation of circumstances providing grounds to believe that the operations are being performed for the purpose of money laundering or financing terrorism;
 - d. failure of the Client to provide proof of identity or other documents for verification, as well as the submission of inaccurate information by the Client;
 - e. inability to contact the Client using their registered email address and telephone number;
 - f. failure of the Client to provide proof of the identity of a beneficiary, i.e., a person for the benefit of whom the Client acts (in particular, on the basis of an agent contract, commission, and trust management contracts, while carrying out non-trading operations);
 - g. submission of counterfeit or invalid documents.
- 2.2. The Company can declare a non-trading operation suspicious on the basis of analysis of the nature of a non-trading operation, its components, attending circumstances, and interaction with the Client or the Client's representative.
- 2.3. The Company reserves the right to investigate the nature of any suspicious non-trading operations listed in clause 2.1 of these Regulations, whereupon such operations will be suspended until the reasons for their occurrence are ascertained and the investigation is complete.
- 2.4. During the course of an investigation, in accordance with clause 2.3 of these Regulations, the Company shall have the right to request that the Client provide proof of their identity, proof of their residency, proof of payment documents, and other documents confirming the lawful possession and legitimate origin of the funds transferred to the Client's Account.

- 2.5. If suspicious non-trading operations should be exposed, the Company shall have the right to:
 - a. refuse to perform these operations by rejecting the respective request;
 - b. limit funds deposits and/or funds withdrawals to/from the Client's Account, in any way, at the Company's discretion;
 - c. return funds previously deposited to the Client's Account to the source from which the deposit was made;
 - d. write off any compensated commissions or bonuses credited to the Client for operations performed by the Client;
 - e. terminate relations with the Client.
- 2.6. In the case of refusal to perform suspicious non-trading operations or the termination of relations with the Client as a result of suspicious non-trading operations performed by the Client, the Company shall not be held liable for any breach of contract with the Client.

3. Communications

- 3.1. In order to communicate with the Client, the Company will communicate with the Client as per Clause 18 of the Client Agreement.
- 3.2. The Client shall notify the Company in a timely manner of any change in his contact details either by updating the information in MyFXTM or by any other method offered by the Company.
- 3.3. The Client understands and accepts that the Company reserves the right to unilaterally terminate relations with the Client should the Client behave inappropriately when communicating with a Company employee.
- 3.4. Every non-trading operation by a Client shall be confirmed by a log in the "My Transfers" of MyFXTM. If the Client has reason to believe that the log is inconsistent, the Client shall have the right to lodge a complaint in accordance with the Complaints Management Policy.
- 3.5. If the Client has reason to believe that there has been a mistake in their own favor in the log, the Client is obliged to inform the Company about the mistake as soon as possible using the contact information provided on the "Contact us" subsection, located in the "About Us" section of the Company's website.

4. Payment's policy

- 4.1. Funds deposits to a Client Account and funds withdrawals from a Client Account may only be performed via the deposit and withdrawal methods available in MyFXTM. Commission fees as well as other charges for each deposit and withdrawal option are published in MyFXTM and on the Company Website and may periodically be changed by the Company.
- 4.2. The Client understands and accepts that any commissions or other charges incurred by the transfer of funds shall be at the Client's expense. The Company shall not charge any additional commission for funds transfers, except for the commissions and other expenses specified in these Regulations.

- 4.3. The deposit of funds to a Client Account shall be carried out on the basis of a funds deposit request. The withdrawal of funds from a Client Account shall be carried out on the basis of a fund's withdrawal request. The transfer of funds from one trading account to another, which belongs to the same Client, shall be carried out on the basis of an internal funds transfer request. These requests shall be processed by the Company within 1 (one) business day, but not later than at the end of the business day following the day on which the request was received (or, in the case of deposits, following the day on which the funds were credited to the Company Account) whereby no additional information or document is needed.
- 4.4. Requests for non-trading operations such as deposit requests, withdrawal requests, and internal funds transfer requests shall be submitted by the Client in MyFXTM and shall be considered as accepted by the Company if they are displayed in the "My Transfers" of MyFXTM and in the Company records of Client requests.
- 4.5. The Company shall credit the sum received on the Company Account to the Client's Account.
- 4.6. Funds shall be credited to the Client's Trading Account in the denomination currency of the Client's Account, regardless of the currency in which the funds were initially transferred.
